

Clopay® Voted No.1
Residential Doors in Professional Door
Dealer's 2011 "Best of Business" Poll

Cincinnati, OH - 12/7/2011

Clopay Building Products, North America's leading manufacturer of residential garage doors and a preferred supplier in the commercial overhead sectional and rolling steel door market, has been voted "Best Residential Doors" in the Professional Door Dealer (PDD) "Best of Business" 2011 poll.

Clopay also ranked in the top tier for Best Commercial Doors, Best Custom Doors, Most Innovative Products and Best Customer Service.

Professional Door Dealer is a trusted and independent source of information for the garage door and access control industry. The "Best of Business" is an annual opinion poll that invites industry professionals to vote for door and access-control vendors in more than 20 categories. The winners are highlighted in the December print edition of the magazine and on the PDD website at <http://www.professionaldoordealer.com/Best-of-Business.aspx>.

"Professional door dealers are the face and hands of the Clopay brand," says Pat Lohse, vice president of residential marketing for Clopay. "We are committed to providing the best products, service, tools and training to help them lead in their respective markets. We are honored that they have recognized our hard work by voting Clopay No. 1 in this annual industry survey."

With three manufacturing facilities and 51 distribution centers across the U.S. and Canada, Clopay Building Products is North America's leading manufacturer of residential garage doors and a preferred supplier of commercial doors. Bringing nearly 50 years of experience and innovation to the building products industry, the company maintains a strong family of brands including Clopay®, Holmes Garage Door Company® and IDEAL Door®. Since 1996, Clopay is the only residential garage door brand to earn the Good Housekeeping Seal.

In 2010, the company launched fiberglass and steel entry door lines to complement its popular residential garage door styles. Today, Clopay is the only manufacturer in the industry to offer homeowners the option to coordinate the appearance of the two most important entrances to their home: the front door and the garage.
